Jottings.

Mrs. Frank Nelson has the measles.
Jos. Davey remains about the same, being very seriously ill.

The examination of Frank Chaffee was adjourned until to-day.

M. J. McCarthy of Ann Arbor is the new barber in Cash & Snow's shop.

L. H. Titus is getting nicely settled in his new law office in the fireproof building.

David Cooley of Dowagiac has purchased the bakery business of S. A. D.
Lynn.

The foundation of the old court house is being removed, preparatory to moving the building.

The new boarder at the county jail is George Merriman of Hartford, charged with adultery.

Advertised letters: A. J. Wozner, C.
A. Roberts, A. S. Bennett, D. O. Connell, Bernard J. Creagon.

Miss Lizzie Pugsley, who has been working in I. J. Cummings' store, has resigned her position for the summer.

Married, July 9, 1903, at Paw Paw, by Justice Rowland, Melvin Decker of Columbia and Blanche M. Marr of Geneva.

Theo. Clapp fell from the train at Hartford, July 4, while returning from South Haven and has a broken collar bone as the result.

A number of Paw Paw Elks attended a meeting of their lodge at Kalamazoo last evening. Fred Ocoobock and Wm.
Butler were among the large class initiated.

L. H. Titus has sold, through the agency of W. A. Lemaux, his property on north Kalamazoo street to R. Riesen; price, $700. Mr. Riesen will build a modern residence there.

A. Graves has bargained for the purchase of Mrs. T. Brooks' house for $1-350. He has moved his goods here from Battle Creek, and will occupy the place as soon as he can get possession.

Lightning struck in the Oddfellows' hall Wednesday evening during the progress of a meeting. A ball of fire dodged about the room, passing close to several persons, but did no serious damage.

Jay Rickerson of Buchanan, formerly of Paw Paw, was caught in a belt at his laundry the forepart of the week and as a result he has a broken arm. Chas.
Thurston has gone from here to take charge of the laundry and Jay has returned home.

Don Hibbard and Ray Wilson have leased the Dyckman house from J. M.
Longwell and have taken possession.
Mr. Longwell and family have moved into their home on south Kalamazoo street. The hotel will undergo some extensive repairs, making it a thoroughly up-to-date place. The new landlords are hustling young men, and deserve the large patronage they will be sure to enjoy.

Over 200 tickets were sold from Paw Paw to South Haven the Fourth. Such patronage as that ought to open the eyes of the managers of the road to the justice of the demand for better train service than we are now getting. It is safe to say that an average of 50 people per day go over the road between Paw Paw and Lawton because of the poor passenger service of the Pere Marquette. This represents a distinct loss to the railroad, and we regret that the cause for so primitive a mode of travel exists.

Mrs. Nellie Lane died last evening at the home of her mother, Mrs. Wm.
Pugsley, after a long illness. Funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

Miss Jeannette Fowler is seriously ill again. She will leave to-morrow or Monday for Ann Arbor, where she will undergo another operation. Her mother will accompany her.

Dr. W. F. Hoyt and Mrs. Amanda Bartram were married at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride, Rev. Olivia J. Woodman officiating. Only the relatives and a few intimate friends were present. Dr. and Mrs.
Hoyt took the evening train for New York, and will sail for London the 15th, remaining abroad for nine months. The True Northerner unites with other friends in wishing them happiness.

There was a quiet wedding in the parlor of the Joe Sherman house Wednesday, July 8, at 4 p. m. The contracting parties were Dr. Frederick M. Hibbard, formerly of Marion, Ind., and Mrs.
Helen Grout, who is well and favorably known in Paw Paw. The marriage was solemnized by Mrs. Anna Barton. After a dainty luncheon, the newly married couple took the 6 o'clock train for Chautaqua, N. Y. Besides the enjoyment of the assembly, they will visit the doctor's boyhood home in Jamestown.

Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Cummings of this place were the victims of a sad accident at South Haven the evening of July 4, while witnessing the fireworks. A rocket was carelessly fired into the crowd, striking Mr. Cummings on the right foot, cutting open his shoe, breaking two toes and lacerating them seriously. The rocket then passed under Mrs. Cummings' clothing, burning her limbs quite seriously. They received medical care at South Haven, and were met by a physician on their arrival home.
Both are now recovering, although yet confined to the house. Mr. Cummings' injuries are the more serious, and it will be some time before he will be out again. It was at first thought he would lose the two toes, but it is now thought they will be saved.
